News Release

June 7, 2008-FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Annual Book Sale at Library

BREWSTER-The Brewster Ladies' Library will hold its Annual Book Sale in August. The sale will begin on Monday, August 4 from 9:00 a.m.-3:00 p.m. and will continue for the remainder of August during regular library hours. Early birds are also encouraged to buy fabulous baked goods prepared by library volunteers and members-- available only on the first day of the sale.

Over 40,000 items including books, video tapes, CDs, and DVDs are available for sale. Books have been sorted into more than 50 categories ranging from classic and contemporary fiction to history, science, and art books.

The Book Sale, located in the Library basement, will also be open on rainy Sundays and Mondays during the month—though the Library itself is closed on Sundays and Mondays.

Proceeds from the sale directly support the library.

The deadline for donations for the August 6th Book Sale at Brewster Ladies' Library is Saturday, June 16th; you are kindly asked to hold any later donations until early to mid-September. The small booksale room on the Lower level will close on July 10th. The opening date of the sale will be from 9-3 on Monday, August 6th and will continue for the remainder of August during library hours and on rainy Sundays and Mondays from 10-3. There should be over 40,000 books, audio/video tapes, CD's and DVD's available for the sale. The books have been sorted into over 50 categories from classic fiction to contemporary, from history to science/nature, from art to poetry. The library is grateful for your support.
